Data for Opioid Response: What We Know, What We Need to Know, and How We Fill the Gaps

INTERACT FOR HEALTH

Ashlee Young, MPH, CHES ayoung@interactforhealth.org
Kelly Firesheets, PsyD kfiresheets@interactforhealth.org
What We Know
Rx Drug Misuse/Addiction
Illicit Use
Overdoses
ED Overdoses
Overdose Deaths
Overdose Deaths – KY 2012-2016

2012: 1,032
2013: 1,003
2014: 1,069
2015: 1,218
2016: 1,404

KY Office of Drug Control Policy
Percentage of adults reporting they had a friend or family member who has experienced problems as a result of . . .

- abusing prescription drugs
- using heroin

Kentucky Health Issues Poll
“Ripple Effects”
Active OOHC Placements

KY Statewide Foster Care FACTS

21% Increase
Alcohol & Drug Related Collisions

10.7% decrease

19% increase

KY State Police
Counties with increased vulnerability to rapid HIV outbreak

Of the 220 counties in the nation that researchers have determined are most vulnerable to disease outbreak, 54 are in Kentucky. Needle-exchange programs have been approved in 33 Kentucky counties, but not in many of the most vulnerable counties.

- Vulnerable county
- Operating syringe exchange*
- Approved exchange; not yet operational

*as of May 12, 2017
Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
What We Need to Know
Are our interventions working??
Quick Response Team

• An overdose response team that includes police/fire/EMS, addiction treatment providers, and peer mentors. The team follows up with overdose survivors, their friends, and their family to offer support, provide information, and assist with connects to treatment.
DATA FUNNEL

Total Number of Overdoses
Referrals
Eligible Referrals
Engagement
Referred to Treatment
Connected to Treatment
Completing Initial Level of Care
Successfully Transfer to Next Level of Care
How Do We Fill the Gaps
Sector Collaboration

- Treatment
- Tech
- Community
- Law Enforcement
- Philanthropy
- Academic Data Sharing

• Trust and Transparency
• Value proposition=Saving Lives
• Legal Framework and Political Advocacy
• Capacity-building and effective tools for sharing